Terms and Conditions

Please read the following carefully and sign below to agree with T&C's:

Edinburgh University Football Camps cannot accept liability for any injury caused whilst travelling to and from our events.

We cannot be held responsible for any loss or damage to any personal belongings whilst in attendance on, or travelling to or from one of our events.

Due to the popularity of our events, many of them are oversubscribed. It is therefore important to realise that for safety reasons we can only guarantee a place on ANY camp to those booking in advance. Edinburgh University Football Camps operates a daily registration and de-registration policy.

We only allow children to leave the camp with a suitable parent/guardian unless otherwise informed in writing.

Any medical conditions that a participant may have must be fully disclosed in writing to Edinburgh University Football Camps on the application form, as well as in writing at registration to the appropriate member of staff on the course.

In the unlikely event that a child is injured on one of our events, parental consent is given to Edinburgh University Football Camps to administer Emergency First Aid treatment where necessary or to transfer the child to hospital if deemed necessary.

In this event, all attempts to contact parents will be made using the contact numbers provided.

In the event of inclement weather, all Edinburgh University Football Camp events have suitable indoor areas to change, meet and eat lunch in and suitable activities will be organised whilst under the care of Edinburgh University Football Camps staff.

Participants require a packed lunch, plenty of fluids and suitable clothing for the conditions.

Permission is given by you to Edinburgh University Football Camps to use any photographs or video film taken on the course that may involve your child for future promotional material. Any images used will not be accompanied by any personal details.

In the unlikely circumstance that Edinburgh University Football Camps has to cancel an event for any reason, a FULL REFUND will be issued and no written request is required.

Confirmation of your booking is assumed upon our receipt of payment. This is valid if places are available on the course. If places are not available, we will contact you by telephone (details required).

Booking a place on the camp is deemed acceptance to these terms.
